

At Loughborough College we are committed to the establishment and maintenance of a culture wherein current and potential employees, regardless of status, are treated solely on the basis of their merits, abilities and potential regardless of:

- Gender Race
- Ethnic or national origin Age (subject to normal retirement policies)
- Disability
- Trade union membership or non membership
- Family circumstance or other irrelevant distinction
- Colour Nationality
- Socio-economic background
- Religious or political beliefs
- Sexual orientation

We seek to ensure that no one is disadvantaged by application of a rule, condition or requirement which cannot be justified in job-related terms or as a requirement of law.
